

Urge you to initiate compulsory arbitration of dispute between Mr Albritton and Mr Ergen to settle the termination of the satellite retransmission contract that was not renewed Wednesday May 30, 2003. This dispute has effected tens of thousands of satellite customers accross the whole country. The public domain is suffering for the lack of cooperation between these two individuals. Mr Albritton has signed a retransmission contract with DirectTV, why can't he come to an agreement with DishNetwork? Again, I urge you to use your power as FCC chairman to bring these two entities together to resolve this ridiculous problem.

Sincerely,

Joseph L. Hoffman,
